IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED CALL FOR A CIRCULAR DE-SCRIBING ALL SYMPTOMS.

SYMPTOMS:

The symptems of Catarrh, as they generally appear, are at first very slight. Fersons find they have a cold, that they have frequent stitucks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperaturs. In this condition, the time may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, arterwards becoming thick and adhesive. As the discase becomes chronic the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and besty and are hawked or coughed off. The assiretions are offsestive, causing a bad breath; the volce is thick and massi; the syste are weak; the sense of the smed is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes piace. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his threat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus, which has fallen down from the head furing the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should less no time in arresting it.

The above are but feet of the many Chierrh symptome.

DAILY LEADER THE DIFFICULTIES IN THE WAY OF SHERMAN.

Charles being a construction of the party of Hood Beauregard, Hardee, Bragg, SWamps and South Carolina Chival-ry, To Be at Him.

The braggart tone which distinguished the rebel press during Sherman's march through Georgia, has at last found a voice once more in Columbia, South Carolina. The Carolinan thus foretells disaster to Sherman:

Fovernor and the spirit of our planters, werything that can be of service to the invaders will be removed or burned. General Sherman will soon discover that with-very brilliant. He has at present only one —the Savannah river—and it, if our military authorities and the people of Georgia are not asleep, will soon be a doubtful one.

He will then be compelled to move with great circumspection, and in every direction we turn we see difficulties in the way of the Federal commander which should raise our hearts and courage. At Augusta

he will meet the returning veterans of Hood, as well as Cobb's and Smith's reserves; at Branchville he will be welcomed by Beau-regard and Hardes and at Florence he will by received by Bragg. If General Shorman politically, he will have an empty town, with defenseless women and children, and erhaps a few croakers, left behind. And, nally, if he takes Florence, he must have Branchville also to hurt Charleston. This will no doubt send a raiding party or two towards Charleston; but they will only be gratified by a look at the still upward pointing spires of the noble old city by the sea, but nothing more.

of his movements are developed: we wish, however, to say that we will consider him a great captain if he ever reaches Weldon with an army intact; If he does not, his successes in the State of South Carolina can only be temporary, and his march through Georgia will have proven what we now strongly suspect it in reality to have been, an absolute necessity—a movement which, while we cannot help admiring its audacity, we would not wish to cite as an example to be followed by military students.

What the Taking of Fort Figher Will Accomplish.

The Columbia Carolinian, a paper published at the capital of the State of swamps and fire-easers, after the first failure at Fort Fisher, indulged in the following very signishing. however, to say that we will consider him a great captain if he ever reaches Wellon with an army intact; If he does not, his

In regard to his probable movements, we think for various reasons not proper to develope, he will attempt the storming of Branchville rather than cross the terrible lines of the Santse and Black rivers to march upon Florence. Therefore, we think Wilmington and Charleston in no danger. It would not have been thus had the Federal armada taken Fort Fisher, and with it Wilmington.
